

FISCAL NOTE

TO: Chief Clerk of the Senate
Chief Clerk of the House

FROM: James A. Davenport, Executive Director

DATE: April 12, 1995

SUBJECT: SB 1524 - HB 1471

This bill, if enacted, will establish a Chair of Excellence for Women's Health at the University of Tennessee - Memphis.

The mission of the holder of the Chair of Excellence for Women's Health shall be to conduct clinical and statistical research and to identify and recommend preventive and other early detection and intervention medical procedures for women's health issues.

The fiscal impact from enactment of this bill is estimated to be an increase in state expenditures of approximately $1,000,000 to fund the chair.

This is to duly certify that the information contained herein is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.

A handwritten signature in black ink, reading "James A. Davenport". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first letters of the first and last names being capitalized and prominent.

James A. Davenport, Executive Director
